Chicago, IL- A Reasonable Facsimile Theatre Company announces the Chicago Premiere production of 'Mrs. Bob Cratchit's Wild Christmas Binge' by Christopher Durang. Opening December 3, 2010 and running through Jan 2, 2011 on Friday & Saturday nights at 8:00 pm, Sundays at 4:00 pm, at The Conservatory, 4210 N Lincoln Ave, Chicago, IL*. Tickets are $15.00, $12.00 for students and seniors.

Feeling a fruitcake tummy-ache at the thought of sitting through the same old tired seasonal shows? We're offering a NEW Christmas feast! 'Mrs. Bob Cratchit's Wild Christmas Binge' mixes 'A Christmas Carol', 'It's a Wonderful Life', and other Christmas standards into a deliciously nasty comedic treat. When Bob Cratchit brings home the 21st orphan for his cranky, overworked and very pissed off wife to care for, the Dickens classic gets turned upside down and inside out when Mrs. Bob 'just says NO'!

Durang's other works include A History of the American Film, The Actor's Nightmare, Sister Mary Ignatius Explains It All For You, Beyond Therapy (on Broadway in 1982, with Dianne Wiest and John Lithgow), and Laughing Wild, among others. He received Obie Awards for Sister Mary Ignatius, The Marriage of Bette and Boo and Betty's Summer Vacation as well as a Tony Award nomination (Best Book Of A Musical) for A History of the American Film.

The show is directed by Michael Buino, set and costumes designed by Tina Haglund, props designed by Susan Gaspar, stage-managed by Hazel Marie, with publicity by Steve Hickson. Cast list available upon request.
